North Dakota Aeronautics Commission

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Betsy and I Welcome You to the Legendary Skies of North Dakota!

Thank you for choosing to visit or do business in our great state. North Dakota offers numerous fascinating destinations, natural wonders, and events – many of which you can learn more about

North Dakota remains at the forefront of the aviation industry with aircraft, manned and unmanned, used in most every way for business and pleasure. Aviation contributes to our state's agriculture, growing industries and communities, and economy. Because of this, the future of aviation in North Dakota continues to look bright.

North Dakota Aeronautics Commission Agency Mission:

"To serve the public by providing economic and technical assistance for the aviation community while ensuring the safe and cost-effective advancement of aviation in North Dakota."

ND AERONAUTICS COMMISSION BOARD:

Jay B. Lindquist, Hettinger Cindy Schreiber-Beck, Wahpeton Maurice E. Cook, Bismarck Dr. Kim Kenville, Grand Forks Warren A. Pietsch, Minot

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

NORTH DAKOTA PASSPORT PROGRAM

Create a Flying

in North Dakota

Visit your local publicly owned airport or contact the ND Aeronautics Commission to request a Create a Flying Legacy Passport. This program is an extraordinary opportunity for pilots, aviation enthusiasts, and the general public to see the valuable assets in our airport system while discovering what Fill in the page at the front of your passport with your name and contact information. When you attend an FAA safety seminar, have your booklet signed by the instructor. Each time you visit a North Dakota publicly owned airport aviation museum, have your passport booklet stamped in the appropriate box. The location of each airport stamp is stated in the passport and is usually located in the pilot lounge next to the visitors' log. When you have earned the proper number of stamps, submit your passport (it will be returned to you) to the North Dakota Aeronautics Commission, P.O. Box 5020, Bismarck, ND 58502. Phone: 701-328-9650.

Visit a community event or attraction by searching NDtourism.com or call 1-800-HELLO-ND before you begin your legacy flight! Each airport box in the passport booklet also has a local attraction listed. For more information on the ND passport program, please visit www.nd.gov/ndaero.
